El Sendero

VOLUME XXIII

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF SAN BENITO HIGH SCHOOL.

Foreword

On these pages we have endeavored to portray for you many of the achievements and activities of the 1951-52 school year. It is impossible, of course to include every event of the year, but we do sincerely hope that a few experiences that are dear to you have been included. With the desire that each page will suggest some pleasant memory we present to you, the El Sendero, your book of memories for 1951.

E. L. Pritchett
Superintendent

San Benito, Texas

To the Students of San Benito High School:

After many very enjoyable years together, we find it necessary to recognize that in the not too distant future you will arrive at the parting of the way.

It is true that you will be attracted by varied interests and will go your respective ways, coping with the complex environments as you try for success in life.

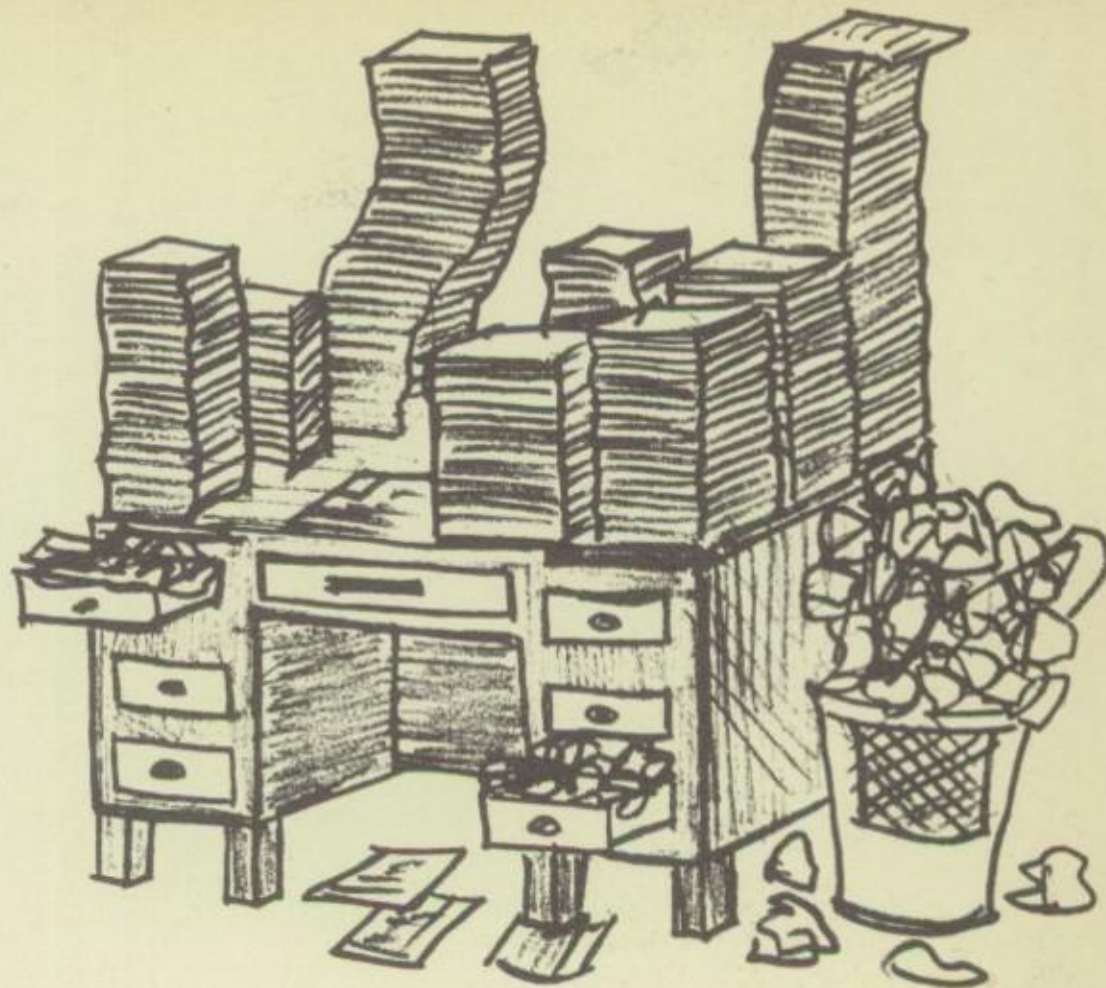

It is our sincere hope that the San Benito Schools have provided you with many of the necessary tools and talents to help you to enjoy a full and prosperous life.

I take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation for having had the privilege of knowing and working with such a fine class of young people as you are.

Sincerely,

E. L. Pritchett

To the Students of the San Benito High School:

Dear Students:

You are to be congratulated on your year's work. We have made progress in many directions, especially in scholarship, attendance, use of library, and student council work.

All of these activities indicate progress toward citizenship. Our school community is dependent upon each and everyone of you for its success. Your active participation in all the school's activities will help insure success toward becoming a better school community.

Sincerely,

Senior Day

E. B. Gray, left, and Carlton Gibson, right, seem to be enjoying the--ahem!--scenery.

It looks like 50,000 satisfied customers all in one load.

Senior Play

Keats Perry doesn't seem to share Grandpa Perry's enjoyment as Butcher Boy gives him a "sample" of Tootsie Bean's (Nancy Scaief) delicious lemon custard pie.

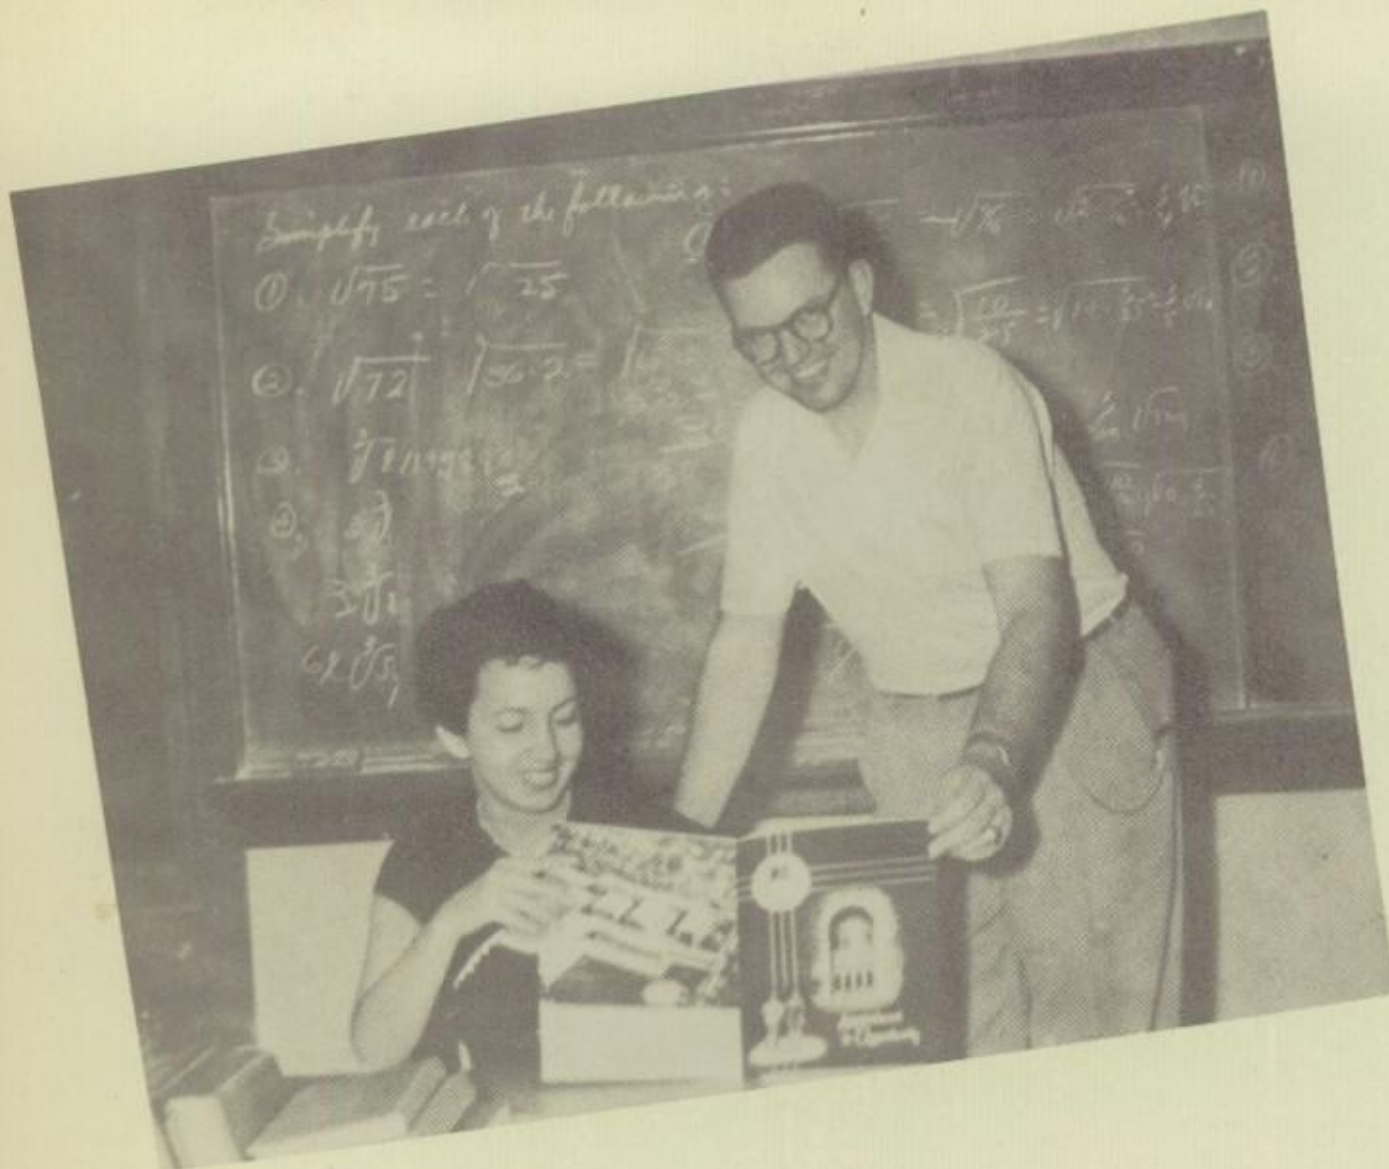

Keats gets into more trouble when John Appleby (Dikie Nicholson) dons a dress belonging to Grandma Perry, while attempting to portray a "long lost wife" of Keat's. Grandpa Perry looks bewildered as Vicky and Valerie stare at one another in disbelief.

Sponsors

Officers

Junior class officers Douglas Hutchings, president, Jo Ann Strickland, secretary-treasurer, and Max Harris, vice-president, are shown on the gym steps as they leave one of the pep rallies.

AT RIGHT: Just in time to keep poor Don from being a bigamist, his wife (Freva Nell Short) rescues him. Jane (Joycelene Thomas) and Irma endeavor to hold him.

The audience acclaimed the play as a huge success, for each girl got her man. Prof. Kropotkins, Mrs. O'Reilly; Jane and Richard; Irma and Al with Mrs. Peterson.

Not termites or bedbugs Prof. Kropotkins (Overlin Esparza) has, but Horatio, Madame Magda's (Joe Carter) adventurous flea. Don Turner (Kenneth Dickey) and Irma Peterson (Wanda June Pyle) watch the sad situation.

Junior Lambaree

Virginia Heneger, Truella Roberts, and Jackie Greer stop for a break, while the boys decide what they want.

Jo Carter, Mr. Lightfoot, and Douglas Hutchings are just clowning around.

Kenneth Dickey is just playing spook.

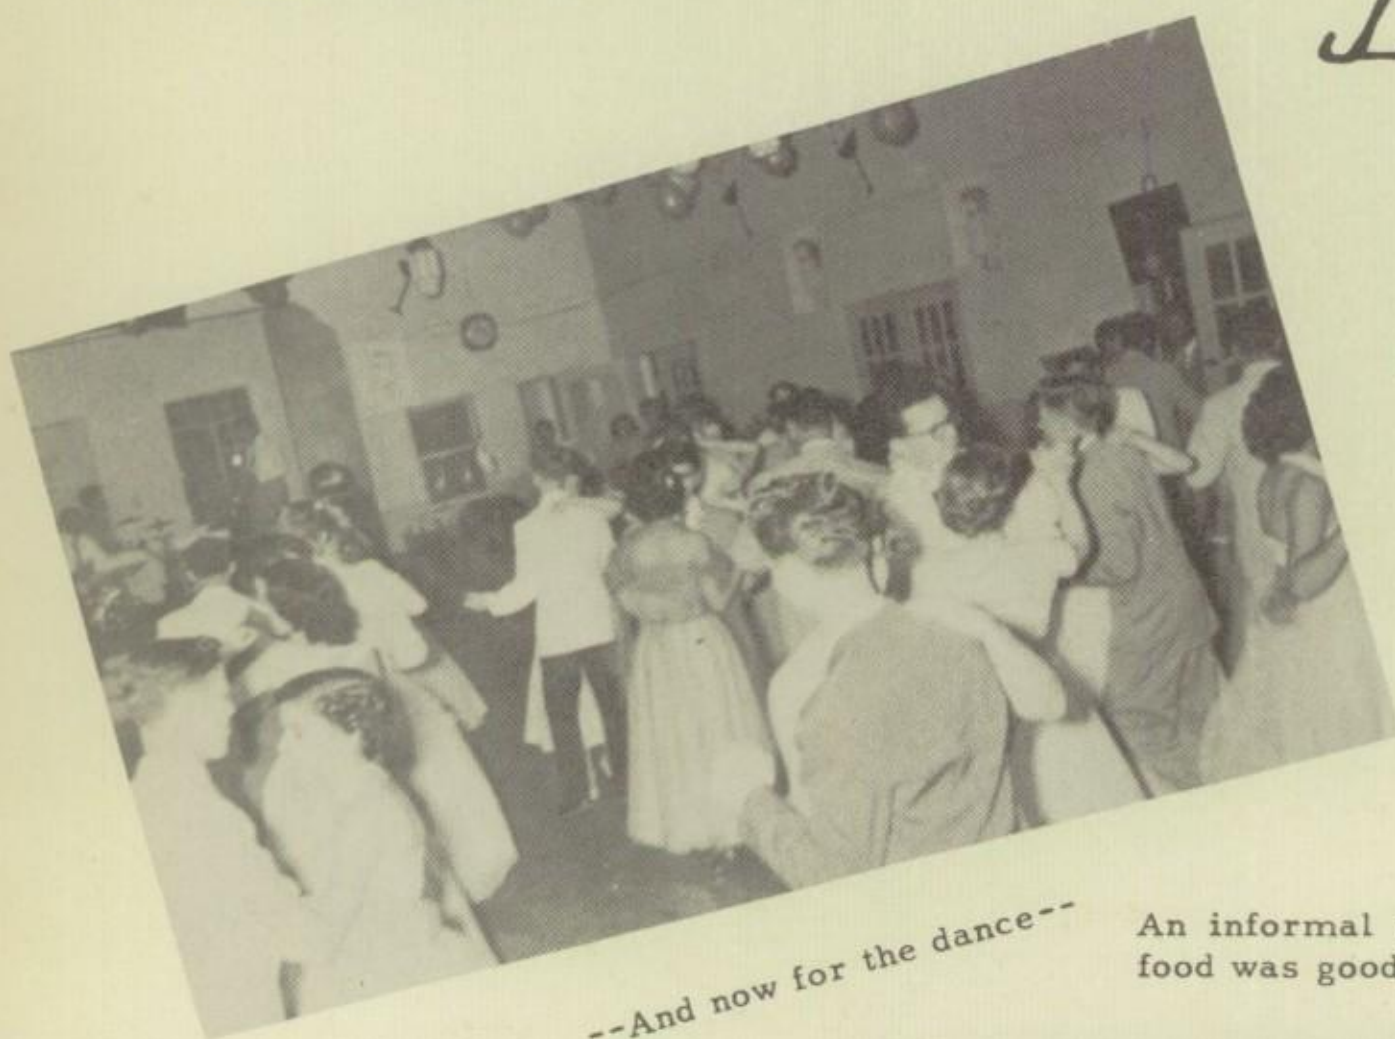

Gosh, isn't this thrilling!! Alan Moore and Dikie Nicholson look very interested.

All present posed for the camera, including Hallbeck and Woolbright on the left.

Can anyone do the shag

--And now for the dance--

An informal shot of the banquet. Boy, but the food was good!!

Stegall and Casey seem to be enjoying the slow music.

Sophomores

Sponsors

The sophomore class sponsors Roy Cockerell and Winston Cocke are caught as they walk down the hall between classes.

Freshmen Day

King James of the House of Waters, crowns Queen Kay of the House of Wenkstern at the assembly given by the Freshmen. The King and Queen reigned through Freshman Day.

Jacquin Peck entertains the King and Queen with her new dance routine.

Swimming was on the Freshman Day agenda, and LeRoy Guenther evidently thinks it is a good idea.

Jewel Rains, the Freshman president, was caught up a tree.

Sonny Cannon and Robert Floyd turn in time to look surprised for the photographer, while Walter Bayley is too busy eating to be surprised at anything.

Someone must have taken a careful and powerful aim with her bow and arrow. Look, she knocked the target over!

A large group gathers in Student Union, a project of the Student Council in 1951-52.

Student Union

Doris Neal and Wanda June Pyle relax in the Student Union living room.

Antonio and Doris watch Albert and Wanda June play pingpong.

Flo Buell buys a coke before he joins the crowd.

There's nothing like a coke after a hard game of pingpong.

A Cappella Choir

Members of the All-State Band

Nat Alewine
Asst. Band Director

Rufus Johnson
Band Director

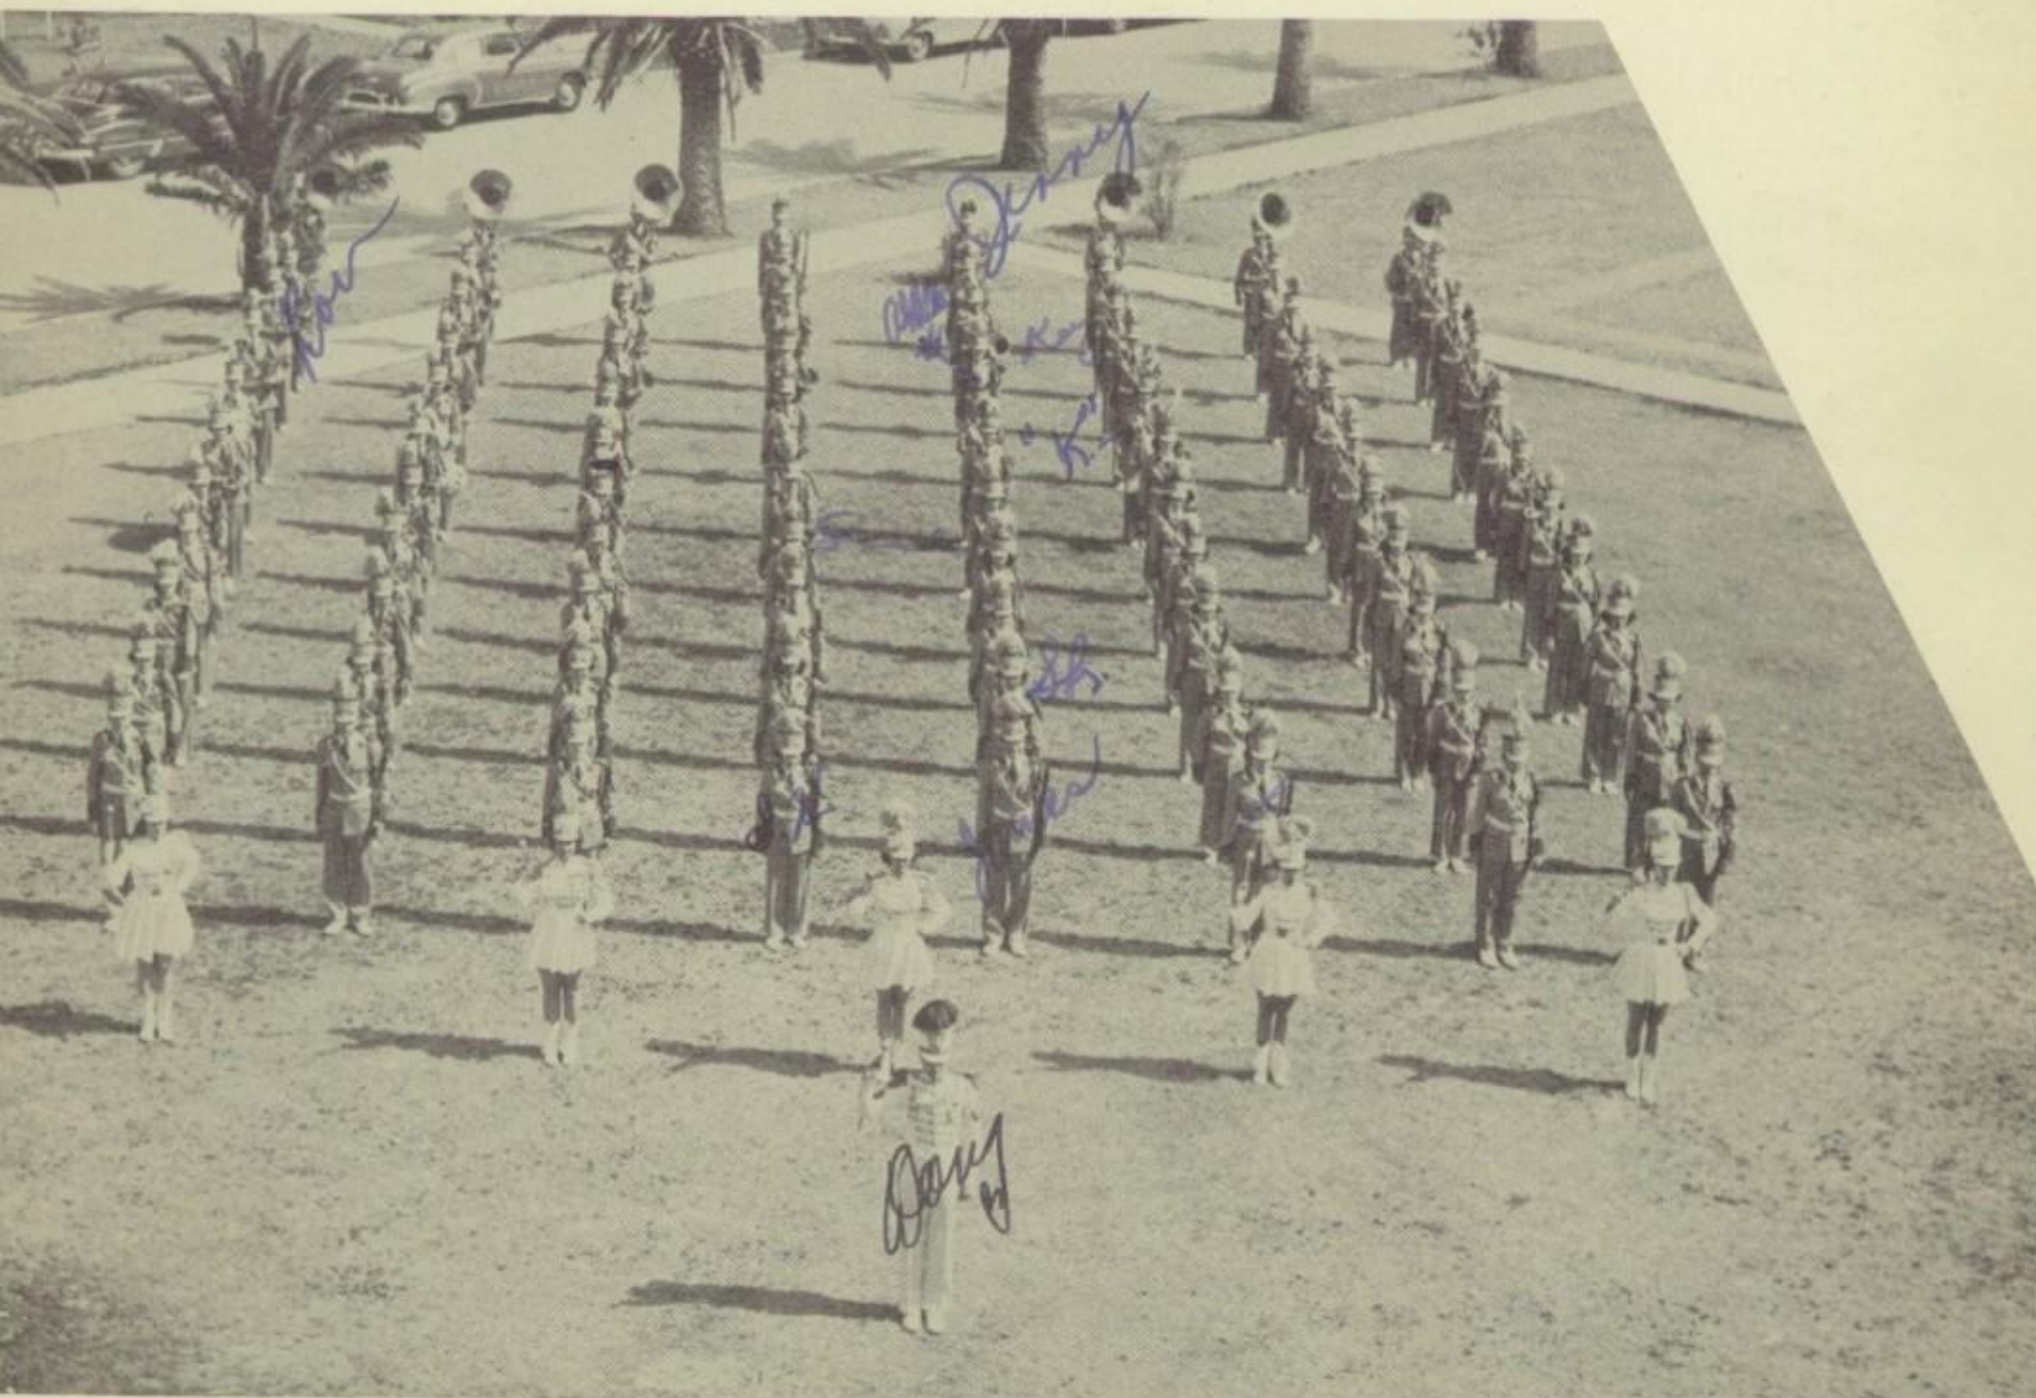

Pat Bowie, Don Hood, Sally Hindman

Band

Band officers are as follows:
Don Hood, Student Conductor;
Patricia Bowie, librarian;
Lionel Betancourt, captain;
Patty Richardson, assistant librarian; Carroll Wayne Yarrow, equipment lieutenant,
Theresa Goolsby, assistant librarian, and David Bennett, supply lieutenant.

The marching band starts out for the down-town pep rally.

Music Makers

Don Hood, student conductor is directing the band during one of the dress rehearsals before the concert.

Everett Dickey leads the band in the number he is working on for student conducting in the band contest.

Looks like our Starlit trio is all ready to sing! This trio, composed of Mary June McIntosh, Louverl Lloyd, and Melba Bowling has sung for other Valley towns on exchange programs and have been asked to sing for many service clubs and banquets throughout the Valley.

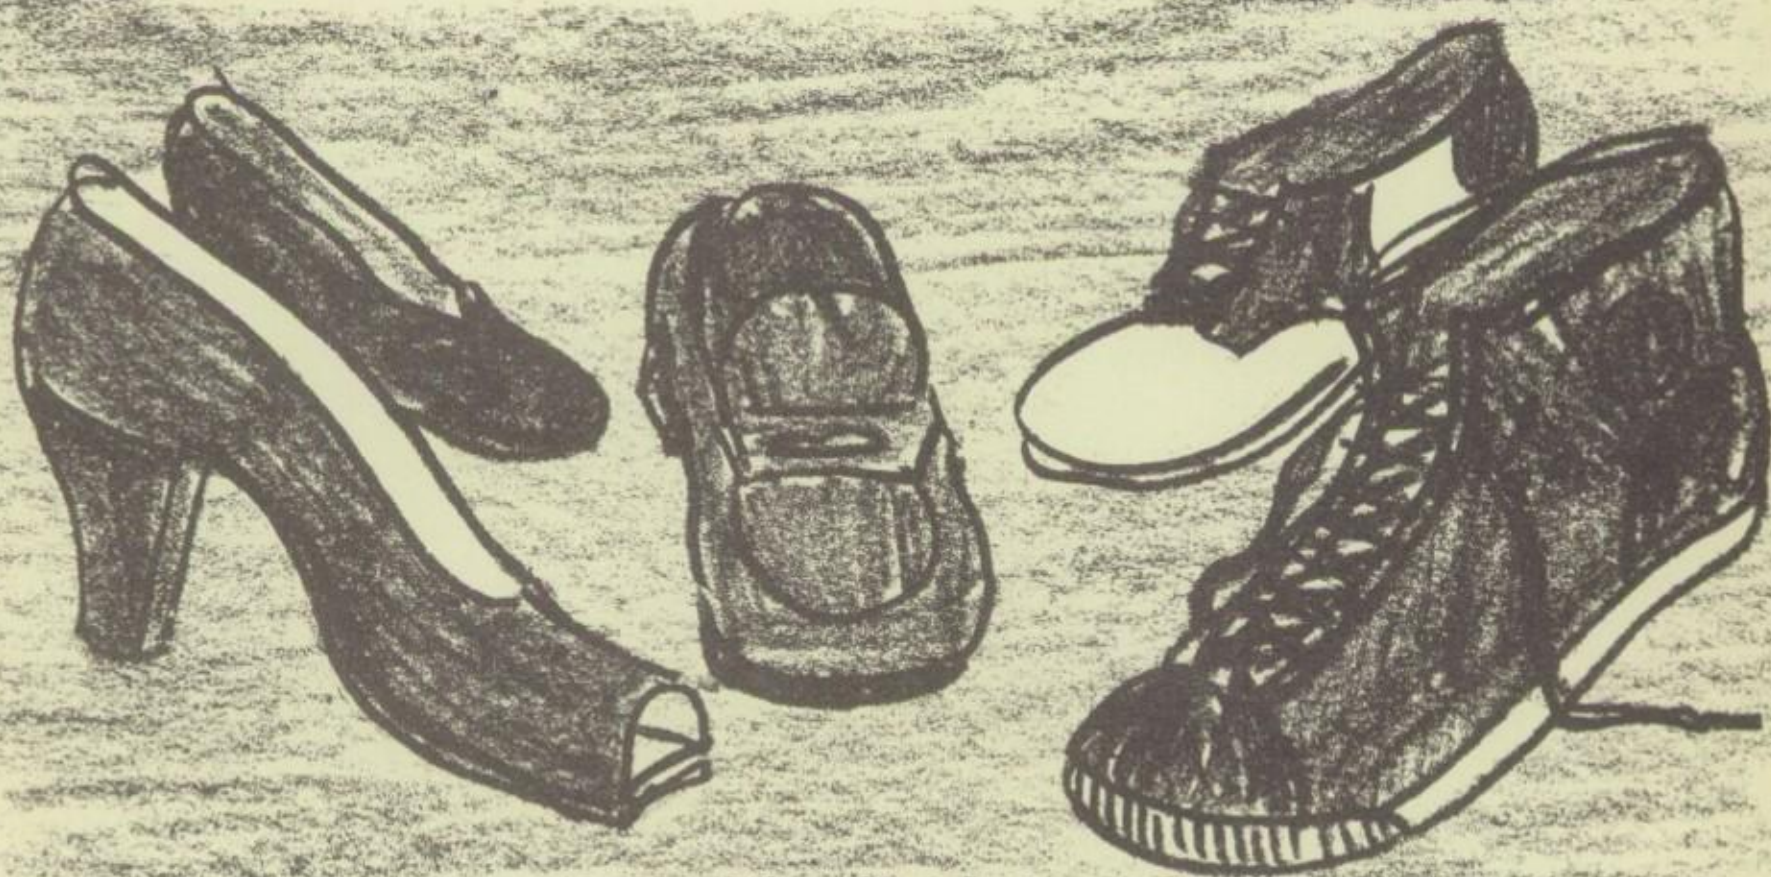

The Loco Four Quartet made up of Connye Casey, Patricia Bowie, Patty Richardson, and Jeanice Hedrick won the first place in vocal music at the PASF convention last year. They, too, have represented San Benito on exchange programs.

The Barber Shop Boys who are Louis Oden, Robert Payne, James Waters, and Jerry Daugherty are as famous as the Starlit trio. Like the trio they have sung all over the Valley and usually they sing at the same place and at the same time. They have a little added feature of a few jokes with each appearance.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll officers, Jeanice Hedrick, vice president, Barbara Halbert, president, and Helen Booth, student council representative are snapped looking at a book in the library. It must be good; they're smiling.

Mrs. McAnally, adviser, takes time out to read the latest issue of the Greyhound Growls.

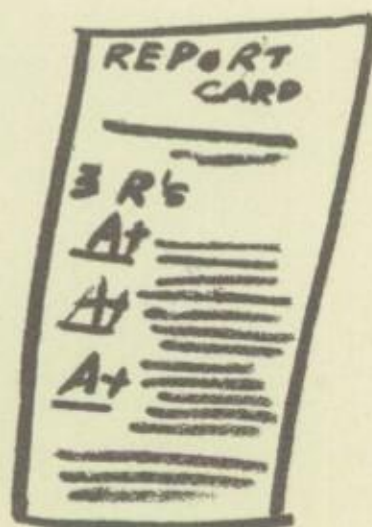

National Honor Society

From the varied expressions of the National Honor Society members, the photographer certainly must have been making faces at them. First row left to right are: Daniel Stalmach, Max Harris, Patricia Bowie, Patty Richardson, Nancy Scaief, Doris Deaton. Second row: Mary June McIntosh, Esther Perez, Ray Gomez, David Hines, Helen Booth, Helen Ruth Houston, Barbara Halbert. Third row: Crescencia Marin, Duane Gentz, Gilbert Montalvo, Marilee Kinne, Gloria Cantu, Anna Cora Rush, Jo Carter. Top row: Richard Tachibana, Angelita Morales, Douglas Hutchings, Everett Dickey, Lionel Betancourt, Don Hood, Truella Roberts, and Barbara Allen.

Mrs. Anna Mae Ford waits in the hall for the NHS members to arrive for a meeting.

Greyhound Growls Staff

Advisers Ruth McAnally and June Fitzgerald are looking happily at awards won by the Greyhound Growls this year.

Editor-in-chief, Helen Booth, is copyreading the next issue of the Growls.

Pat Bowie, circulation manager; Everett Sheffey, asst. business manager; and Eva Lee Gilbert, business manager, are making bills for the Growls' advertisers.

Part of the journalism class is shown reading the Growls before delivering them to the classrooms. Standing are: Eva Lozano, Mary Jane Olivares, J. C. Doyle, Don Hood, Martha Lois Noel, and Anna Cora Rush. Seated are: Hazel Kennedy, Jeanice Hedrick, and Jeanne Doubleday.

Exchange Editor, Barbara Allen; Future Editor, Betty Daughtery; Assistant Editor, Barbara Halbert, work out headlines for a Growls story. They told me writing headlines is quite a job.

El Sendero Staff

Mary June McIntosh, editor-in-chief, stops work on the dummy long enough to give the photographer a smile.

Sponsors Karl Pipes and Elise Blair look on happily as the annual staff finally gets down to work.

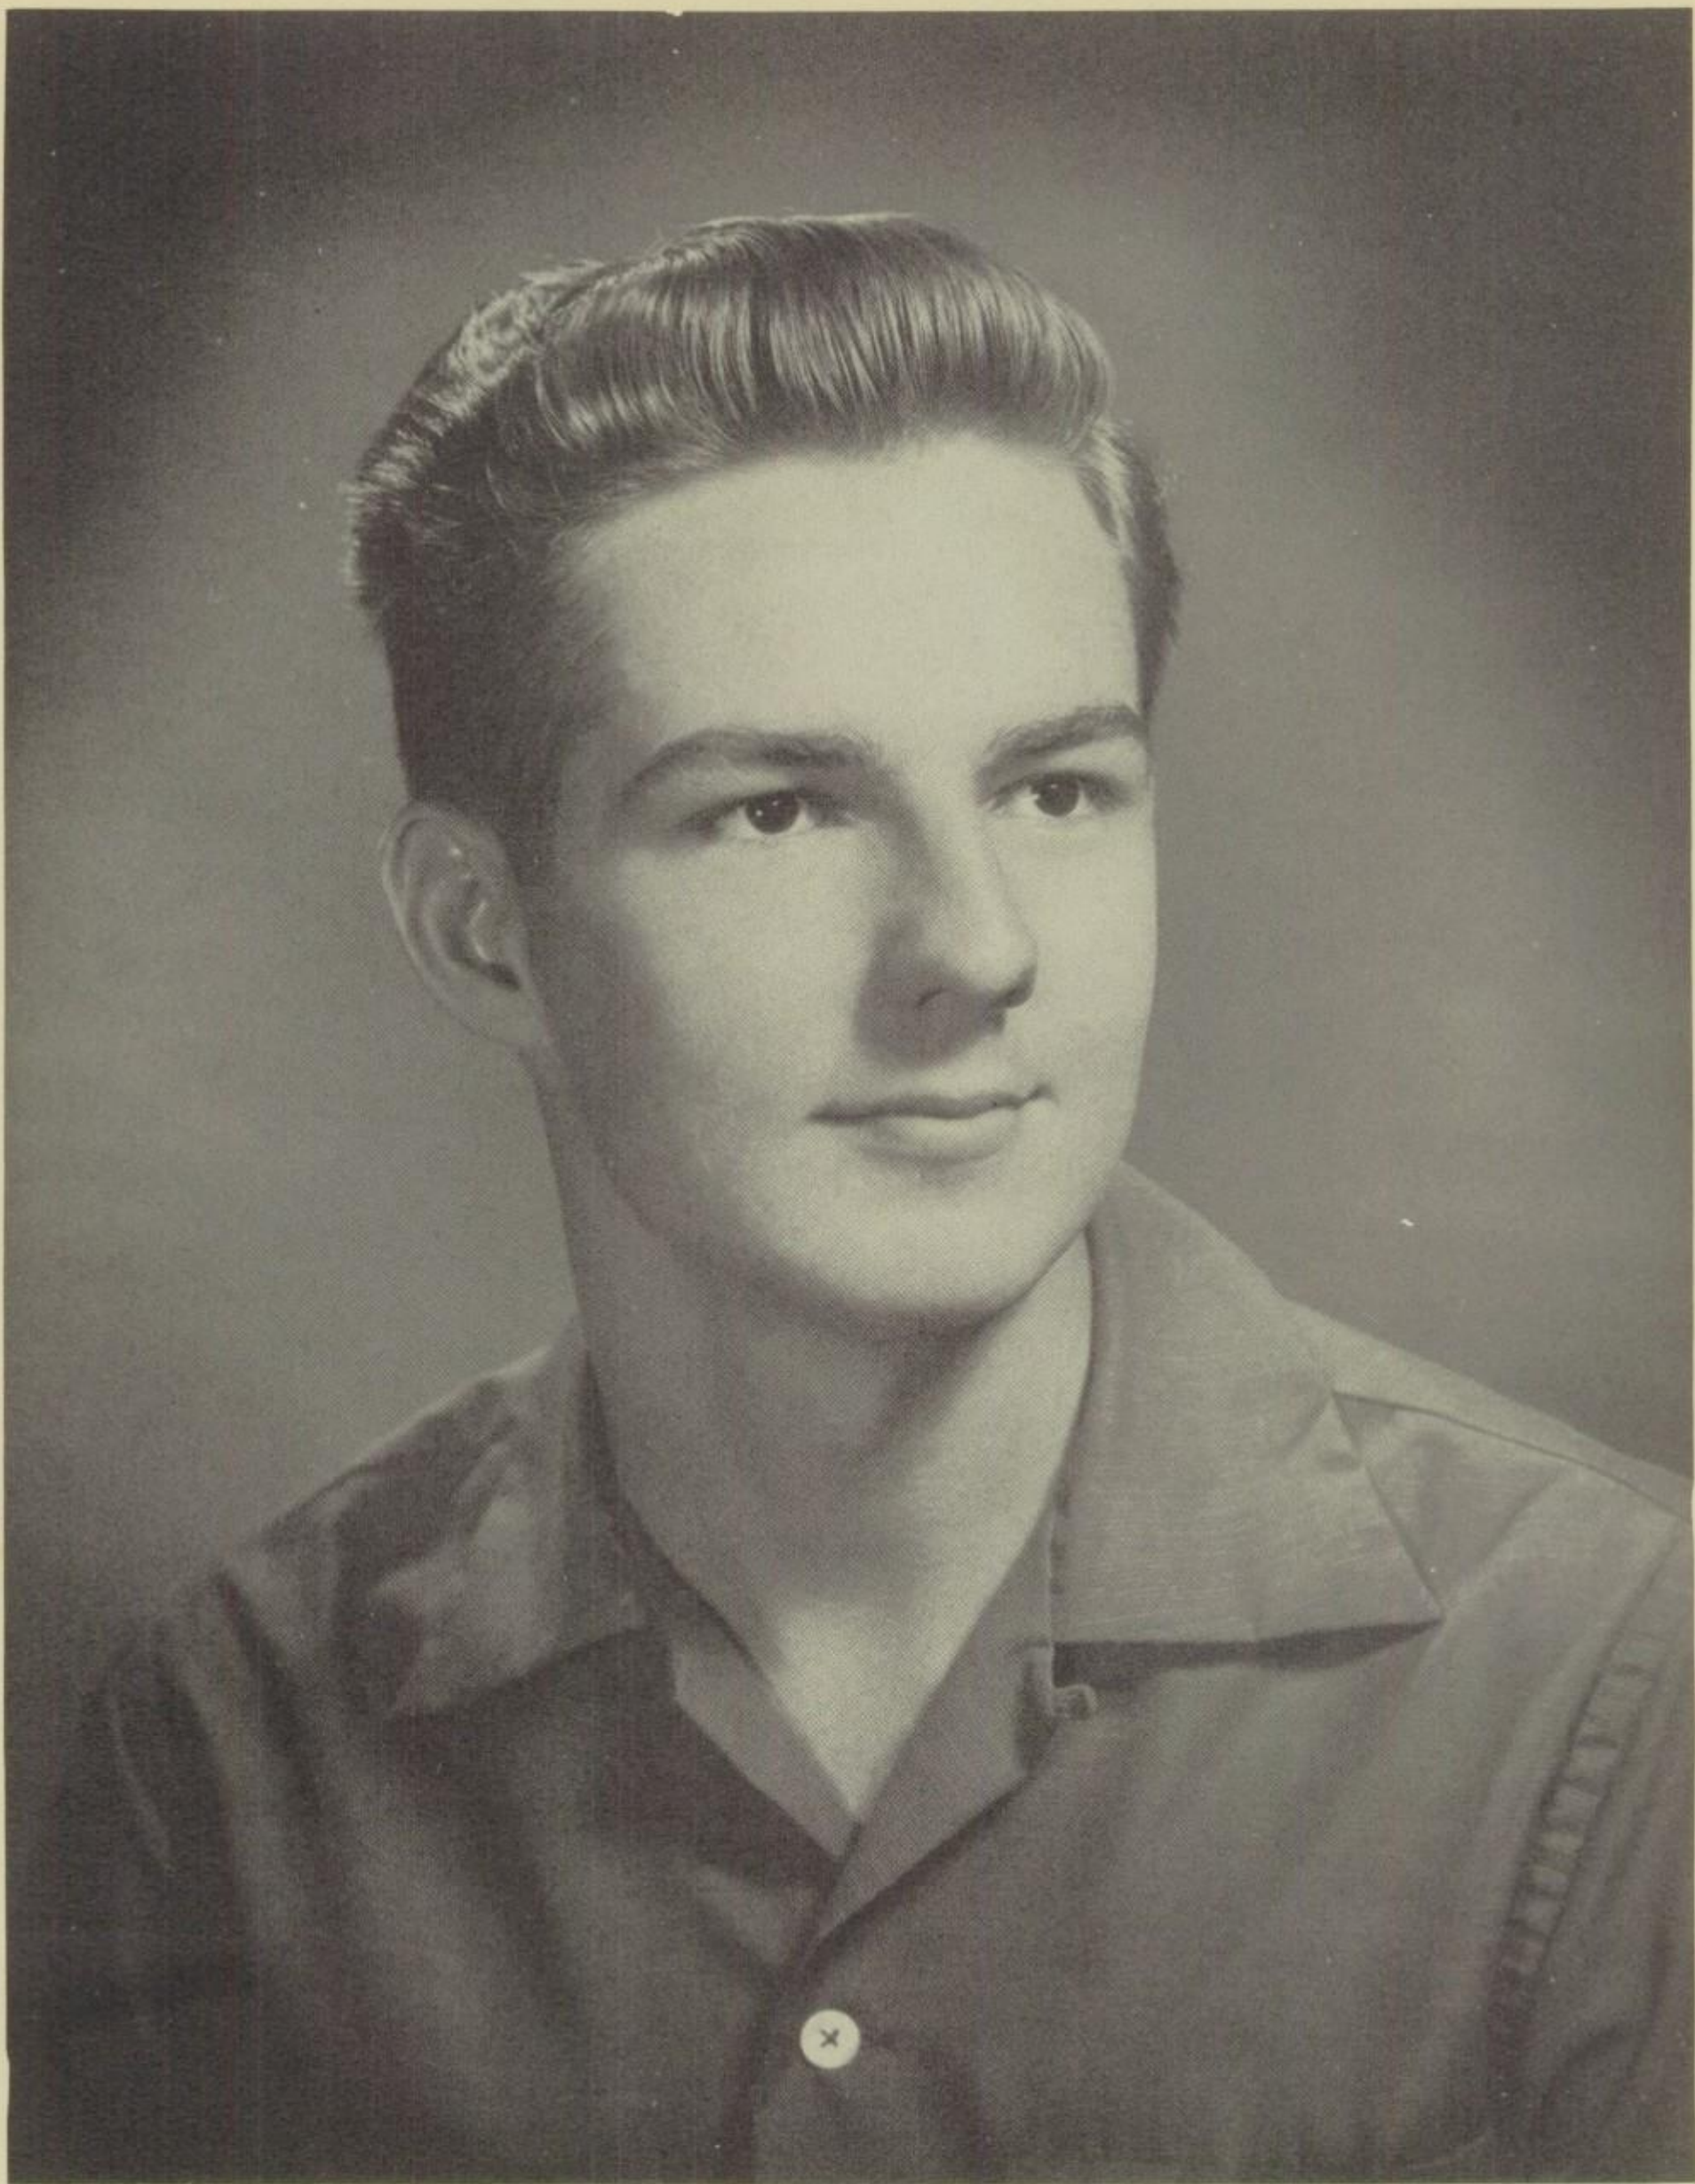

Wonder what they're so happy about? Couldn't be they're through selling annuals could it?

Some terrible problem seems to have arisen! The editorial staff, Lucretia Carpenter, Joann Gause, Mary June McIntosh, Althea Oden, and Bertha Center try to work it out!

From these expressions some of Lionel's pictures are either masterpieces or catastrophes! Discussing the photography are typists Barbara Halbert, Helen Booth; Artist, Rolando Cantu, and photographer, Lionel Betancourt.

At least one of our students has received an honor! Everett Sheffey was chosen as the President of the Pan American Student Forum of Texas and he presided over the state convention held in Austin on April 21 and 22. Everett is the first person from San Benito to hold an office in the state Pan American Student Forum. Everett was so anxious for the convention this year to be a success that he made a special trip to Austin several days before the convention to be sure all the plans were coming along all right.

Pan American Student Forum

Karl Pipes, sponsor of the Pan American Student Forum is giving a short talk to the students who will leave for the state convention.

The Pan American Student Forum officers have just located all the Spanish speaking countries on the globe. Left to right are: Cres Marin, vice president; Patty Richardson, historian; Buddy Moore, president; Patricia Bowie, secretary-treasurer, and Max Harris, student council representative.

Student Council

Mrs. Thompson points out some far away place on the globe to Mrs. Lawson. These two teachers are the student council sponsors.

Gilbert Montalvo, president; Althea Oden, secretary; Helen Booth, treasurer; and Richard Tachibana, vice-president; check over the student council finances.

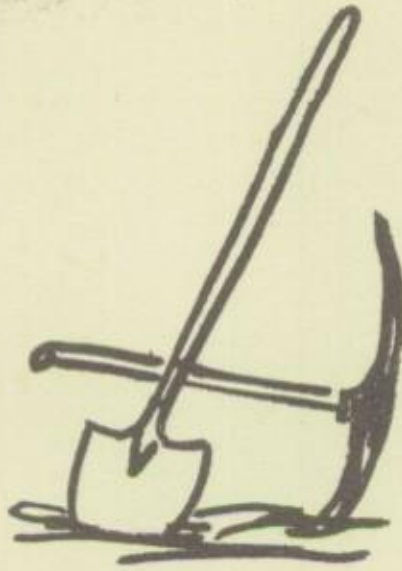

Our busy Student Council stops their meeting long enough to let the cameraman pose them for a picture. Seated left to right are: Patricia Bowie, Alda Mae Brown, Cres Marin, Barbara Allen, Gilbert Montalvo, Angelita Morales, Helen Booth, Patty Richardson, and Joycelene Thomas, Standing are: R. E. Gibson, Bobby Falcon, Nellie Layman, Gary Taft, Emma Montalvo, Richard Tachibana, Gloria Cantu, Emilio Sanchez, E. B. Gray, Max Harris, Joseph Carey, Ray Gomez, Don Hood, Mary Gomez, Everett Dickey, and Althea Oden.

Distributive Education

Eugene Hill, distributive education teacher, stands in the doorway to his room after hearing the class give talks on how to sell various products.

The photographer stopped these distributive education officers on their way to work. Standing are Faye Kilgore, Ely Cortez, Avelina Saldana, and seated are Lily De Leon, and Anna Gonzales.

These students work half a day in a store downtown to get good experience for working in later life. First row: left to right are: Marie Peace, Avelina Saldana; second row: Corina George, Maria Garcia, Anna Gonzales, Lily de Leon, Hilaria Flores; third row: Merlin Swoveland, Faye Kilgore, Ethyl Jane Truax, Elzora Crow, Elida Rubio; top row: Billy Ted Dobyns, Ely Cortez, Jose de la Garza.

Masquers

Marion Lawson, sponsor of Masquers, directed the All School Play.

Future

Demonstrating first aid are Elida Rubio, Anna Cora Rush, Paula Cortez, Patsy Moran, June Richardson, Minerva Saldivar, Maria Juarez, Elena Vasquez. Playing patient is Martha Lois Noel.

Homemakers

These girls are demonstrating the correct table procedure. Seated are Georgia Zrubeck, Waneta Cowart, Emilia Burrnias, Maggie Robles. Standing are Faye Woods, Celia Flores, Wanda June Pyle, Elzora Crow, Jo Ann Rogers, and Maria Gomez.

Taking part in the initiation of new class officers are Ann Perez, Hazel Kennedy, Jeanne Mason, and Mary Perez seated. Standing are Marjorie Morrow, Mrs. Nichols, Mary Charles Ferguson, Althea Oden, Billie Marsalis, Mrs. Lane, Eugenia Stalmach.

They're not back in their second childhood. They are studying child care! Seated are Donnie Sue Johnson, Shirlye Dobyns, Jacquin Peck, and Mary Louise Graham. Standing are Belia Garza, Berta Martinez, Dewana Moore, Sylvia Gomez, Elvira de la Rosa, and Mary Alice Jones.

Wonder what is in that pan. It must be good! Left to right are: Ninfa Lopez, Maria Ysaguirre, Mae Krell, Celia Arellano, Phyllis Dozier, and Ofelia Robles.

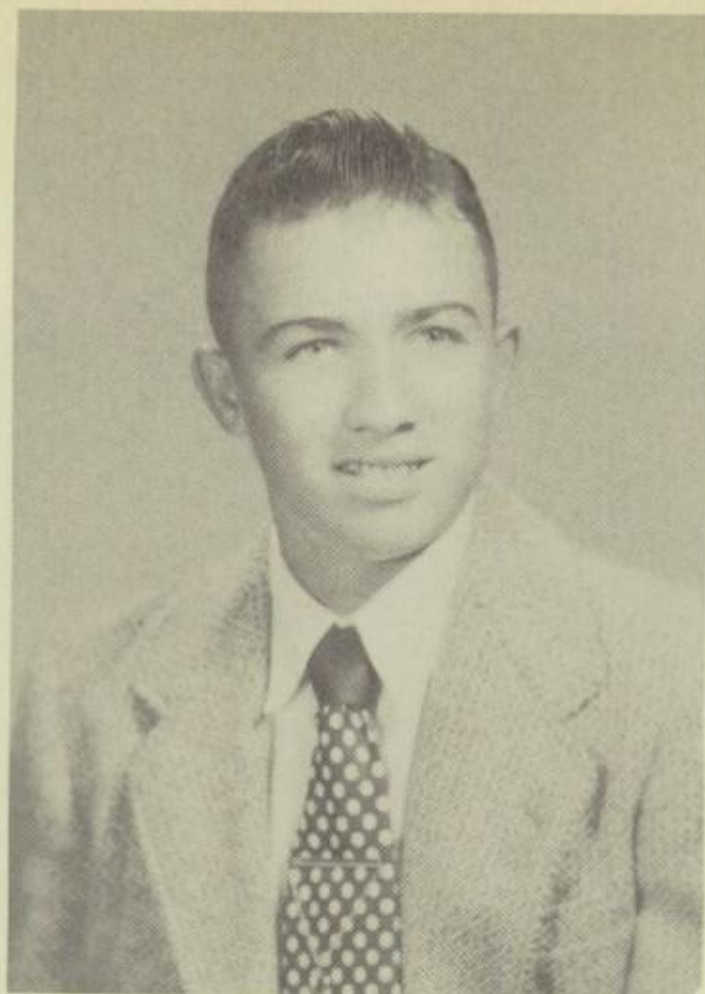

Reading over the Future Homemakers Creed are Helen Graybill, Antonia Aguirre, Barbara Carey, Estella Davila, Maridel McIntosh, Elizabeth Lopez, and Ophelia Quiroz standing. Seated are Diana Ponce, Virginia Casas, and Mary Angel Longoria.

Graduation

The highest scholastic honors given from the Senior class were: Cres Marin, Valedictorian; Anna Cora Rush, Salutatorian; Barbara Allen, third honor student; and Alan Moore, highest male honor student.

The Senior class lines up to practice for the graduation exercises.

Jeanice Hedrick received an imaginary diploma from Mr. Alewine during commencement practice.

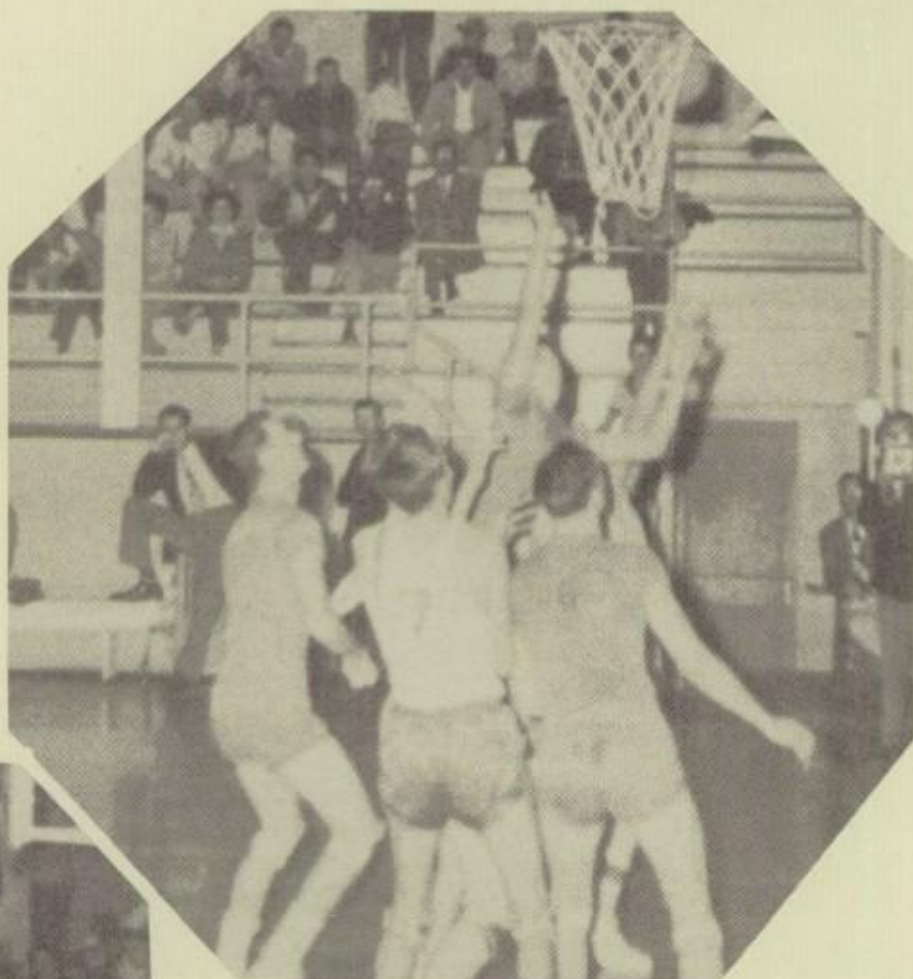

Cheerleaders all lined up for their pictures just before the big Homecoming game!

The two cute Everetts go for a walk.

More women as the lettermen initiate their new members.

Another one of San Benito's exciting basketball games. This year we won district.

The faculty can play basketball too!!

The band has really gone to town!

The football boys leaving for the victorious Alice game.

That's Vernon with the typical Hallbeck smile and Frances Reeder with her typical bubble.

Left: For about two weeks there are a lot of sore arms and legs in ole' S. B. High, as cheerleader tryouts is a big event.

Right: Off with the shoes everybody, for this is the big sock hop.

The bell just rang. Don't get hurt in the Stampede!

This is the end of this train and the end of this book.
